

Wayne State University
College of Education

Dear Colleague

I am pleased to announce that Wayne State University's College of Education is in the process of forming a second cohort with a concentration in Higher Education Administration in the Division of Administration & Organizational Studies through Educational Leadership and Policy Studies. This concentration leads to a Doctor of Education Degree (Ed. D.), consists of 100 total credits and has been designed for higher education personnel, serving those aspiring to administrative positions and those currently in higher education wishing to increase their knowledge and skills in higher education administration.

To find out more about the Higher Education Administration concentration contact Dr. William Hill at (313) 577-9316, email him at ad2107@wayne.edu or attend one of the upcoming informational sessions listed on the attached flier. Our second cohort is planned to start this September 2009.
